“ " I will always remember the Christmas gatherings and pinochle games we played. He had the patience to play and teach me the game. He liked to win but never became upset if I played the wrong card or didn't bid correctly. I will remember him each and every time I play pinochle. He was a great uncle and godfather.

“ I will always remember how he gave my mom, his sister Margaret Schomaker tiny potatoes to give to my brother Mark, because he knew how much Mark liked them. He was such a gentleman. We always enjoyed talking to him. Jitty especially enjoyed talking to him about the 'old days".
