“ My mom was so much more than mere words can say. If you knew her, you'll agree. We miss her more than words can say. I try to find comfort in knowing she is with God and no longer in pain. She wanted us to remember her with smiles, laughter, knowledge, songs, games, thinking 'outside the box' and many more memories. She lives on in our hearts. Each one of us have some characteristic of her. My 2 year old grandson remembers that she liked purple...

“ Barbie was one of my best friends. A talented writer, she loved reading and forget beating her at scrabble. We were always together in nursing school. Tests, coffee, Denny's, study groups in the cafeteria. She loved her family more than anything. She never passed up an opportunity to teach her grandkids about something she loved. She was a devoted good Christian woman. My world got a little darker when she became ill and then passed. I miss you my friend. See you when I get there. I love you.

“ I am sorry to learn of Barbara's death. Although I never new Barbara very well, she did present herself as a loving mother and grandmother. She was quite well informed on many subjects, surely due to her love of reading. I am very sure, she will be missed by all who knew her.

Sincerely, Maye Schanuel
