“ I just learned of the passing of Carol who was a dear friend for over 32 years! We began writing to other when I was a novice and continued all these years. She never forgot my feast day or birthday, St. Dominic's day or Christmas and for years she would surprise us with a unique Advent calendar and a Christmas puzzle we all enjoyed over the holiday.

I feel so blest to have had such a dear friend across the miles! May the Lord reward her for her love and kindness to us and to many other religious sisters.

“ To Carol's family: My deepest sympathy to all of you. Carol was the epitome of a great mother and friend. Her smile was contagious and she always had a smile to share. An overall positive attitude to life and all its struggles was a grand example for all of us. She will be surely missed. Rest in Peace Carol. - Annie Duing
