“ Dear family of Christine (Tina) Potthast:

My name is Ferd (Ferdinand) Potthast a first cousin of Cyril (Sib) Potthast. My knowledge of Tina and Sib petty much dates to the 1950's. when our families visited much more frequently. I am the second youngest of Cyril's uncle Erwin, so my older brothers, Norbert, Ernest, Quintin and sisters, Mary Agnes and Connie knew Tina and Sib much better than I. The above brothers and sisters of mine have all died and are welcoming Tina to their card table in heaven. I doubt their are dairy farms there, because they are much more eternal work rather than eternal rest. My only remaining brother, Tony, isn't sure yet if he can make the wake or the Mass. I have to give you all my deepest regrets that I cannot be present for any of the funeral rites. My wife Joan and I have to leave early this Friday to go to Winona, Minnesota for the baptism of our first grand child, Elliot Potthast. We will be with you in are thoughts. prayers and sense of humor. Because that is how I remember, Tina. She was a very courageous and brave woman to take all the steps necessary to leave her home country and come to the U.S. Those were very difficult times for the good German people. And even though I was eleven years younger than she and she was 10 years younger than Cyril, I am completely convinced that she was the greatest blessing in Cyril's life. She is a fabulous lady and will always be nagging God and the saints to bring you all the things that are best for your futures. Be proud and cheerful for her and each other, because she had a tremendous sense of humor. The biggest reason you all seen and know so little of my wife, Joan, and I, is simply because the Potthast clan is one fertile bunch, and has grown by leaps and bounds and spread over the entire planet. We have raised our two boys, Adam and David, in O'Fallon, MO, so maybe we may some day bump into David, Debbie, Megan and Kimberly in Columbia, where we also have friends -- or Margaret in Maryville. IL or Phillip in St. Louis. We also have many friends in Belleville and may bump into Elizabeth, Eric and Isabelle in Belleville.

God bless and keep all of you, and now you have along with your gentle father, a mother as two saint putting in every good word for *all of you with God Himself and his mother in heaven.

“ Cheryl,

Patty and I send our condolences. When we lose a parent, we lose an important part of our life. Fortunately, their memories live on and become only sweeter with time. God bless your family during this time, and we rejoice in the knowledge that you will be joined again.

“ Three things come to mind when I think of "Teenie"

She was the only one that could get me to eat stuffed peppers. I used to think that was all they ate - we had them every time I stayed for supper. (Maybe she was hoping I would get sick of them and go home for supper!)

She always called me "Little Jule" with her German accent.....it sounded so endearing.

I remember going with Cookie (& the family) to the Hustava's in Collinsville. It was near the Dairy Queen and we would stop once in a while.

*Rest in Peace, Teenie.

“ I've not had the pleasure of meeting Christine but I can tell she has made an amazing impact on the world through her daughter, Cheryl. Cheryl is warm, smart and courageous and I would imagine we have Christine to thank for those wonderful qualities. She will be missed.
