“ Mary and I first met Bruce and Betty over 40 years ago. We were just starting our Air Force career in the early 1980's while they were winding down theirs. It was always great being around the Chief!! After he retired, we would often invade his house in Shiloh with our four kids. We had birthday parties there and even showed up once or twice on Christmas Eve. He loved having us and we always looked forward to seeing him. We would have a beer or two and we'd tell stories about being stationed here and there and he always seemed to have a joke or two up his sleeve—we did that for several years before we PCS'd to Alaska. However, we still stayed in touch. One time Bruce surprised us when he showed up at our son's wedding in Indiana in the mid 2000's in a larger RV. He loved traveling and seeing new places, so I guess that really wasn't too surprising. Bruce has meant so much to me and our family over the 40 plus years! We might have gone an extended period of time (or two) without talking, but it was still good to know that we could pick up that phone and he'd be there. He was a role model, mentor, adopted grandfather—a person you could count on, and he will be missed...God Bless You Chief and may you rest in peace our dear friend!
