

Dagmar Wiskow Davis-Annable

March 14, 1943 - September 5, 2025

Dagmar Wiskow Davis-Annable, age 82 of Worden, IL, died Friday, September 5, 2025, at Saint Louis University Hospital in Saint Louis, MO.

She was born on Sunday, March 14, 1943, in East Germany, the daughter of Siegfried and Lieselotte (nee Krause) Wiskow.

On Saturday, June 10, 2000, she married James E. Annable in Glen Carbon, Illinois, who survives.

Dagmar was born in Stettin, East Germany. In 1945, her family fled to the west to Guderhandviertel to avoid the Russians. They moved to the United States in 1956. She earned a BS from Peabody University and then a master's from Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville. From 1983-1994 she taught at Venice High School. She then taught at Granite City High School from 1994-2009. She was member of Salem United Church of Christ. Dagmar sang in their Chancel Choir and was a member of the Women's Guild of the church. She and her husband enjoyed a time-share in Mexico. For the past 25 years, she has returned 6 times to Germany to visit family and friends. For a year, they had sponsored a German Exchange Student, Andre Kahrs. In her retirement, she enjoyed gardening (especially flowers), listening to music on the radio, and spending time with her five cats, camping and cooking.
