

David M. Miller

October 25, 1949 - December 19, 2025

David Michael Miller, age 74 of Frisco, TX, died Friday, December 19, 2025, at Faith Presbyterian Hospice Care Facility in Dallas, TX.

He was born on Tuesday, October 25, 1949, in North Hollywood, CA, the son of Charles and Marguerite Miller.

On Friday, January 7, 2000, he married Hollea White Miller, who survives.

David was born in North Hollywood, California. He grew up in Dallas, Texas, and attended Greenhill School, SMU and UT Austin. Following college, he joined the family business, The Charles Miller Agency. The company was manufacturer agents who represent factories in the food service industry. Three years later his brother Jeff joined the family business, and it was renamed DJ Marketing. David's son, Ryan, also joined the family business later. David married Hollea White on July 7, 2000. Together they service in various ministries at their church. David considered it an honor and a privilege to be ordained as a Deacon of the First Baptist Church of Dallas. He served on the Deacon development team, as a Prayer Partner, and on the Widows Ministry. He and Hollea served many years as Decision Counselors, counseling new believers and new member of the First Baptist Dallas.
