“ We were good friends in jr. high school. We had some fun - not necessarily within the rules! One specific memory is going down to the soda machine at recess and seeing who could guzzle a can the fastest.

My sincere sympathies to his family.

“ I remember growing up with my dad. All these 29 years that I had him have always been filled with love and support. I’m so lucky to have him and very thankful for all the love and wisdom and support he always gave. My father was a great man that cared and loved greatly.
