

Diane L. Hickey

March 6, 1939 - February 23, 2025

Diane Lee Hickey, age 85 of Highland, IL, died Sunday, February 23, 2025, at her home in Highland, IL.

She was born March 6, 1939, in Covington, KY, to Elmer Spencer Swarhout and Sarah "Sally" May (Moon) Swarhout.

Diane lived with her parents until after her mother passed in 1942. She and her sister Sally lived with their Grandmother and Aunt Mary Swarhout while her father Elmer served in WWII. Elmer married Blanch Orcutt, and the family, with the addition of their brother Jim, resided in Crescent Springs, KY. Diane graduated from Dixie Heights High School.

After graduation, she began working for Citizens Telephone Company. Within two years she had been promoted and received an award for selling the most "Princess Phones" - there were 2 color choices.

On April 22, 1961, she married Larry Hickey at Crescent Springs Presbyterian Church. She left work to raise her two children - David and Janet. Larry's career as an airline pilot took the family to Florissant, Missouri in 1964, and they relocated to Highland in 1972.

Diane was active in Elementary School events and a member of Florissant

Presbyterian Church.

After moving to Highland, the family joined the Evangelical United Church of Christ. She served as a member of the Consistory, Treasurer and twice as the President of the Women's Guild. She served on the Board of Faith Countryside Homes and as its President. She participated in the Women's Guild, The Quilters and many other church activities. Diane enjoyed taking quilting tours, genealogy research and time with family.

Diane worked as a Realtor for Brown Realty, and then as a Real Estate Broker for Brown Realty/Coldwell Banker in Highland, IL.

“ Over ten years ago I met Diane on a quilting trip to England. We bonded over the humorous happenings during our travels and went on more quilting travels together. We always shared a laugh when we talked. Same approach to life. My condolences to her family who were always there for her. Will be missing my quilting friend.

“ David, Janet and family,my deepest sympathy to your family at this time. When I moved to Highland 6 years ago, Diana took me around town showing me places of interest. She also invited me to EVUCC church and HOA meetings. Diana was my back door neighbor at Faith Country Side Condos. You will be missed my friend. Family and friends need to remember that LOVE LIVES FOREVER IN YOUR HEART ❤️
