

Edith M. Zika

February 13, 1930 - December 8, 2005

Edith Margaret Zika, age 75, of Alhambra, IL., died Thursday, December 8, 2005, at Saint Joseph Hospital in Highland, IL.

She was born February 13, 1930, in Hamel, IL., the daughter of Charles and Evelyn (nee Smola) Zika.

Ms. Zika was born in the Hamel Township, Madison County, Illinois; grew up on the family farm. At the age of four, the Zika family moved to Marine, Illinois; she graduated from Saint Paul High School-Highland, IL in 1949. She then worked in Saint Louis, MO doing office work for many years. At the age of 35, she suffered from a Cerebral Aneurysm, she was then a resident of Faith Countryside Homes for fourteen years and moved into a nursing home on September 6, 1995. As a young lady, she enjoyed playing the piano and sewing.

Survivors include Sister-Betty G. Brendel of Marine, Ill.

She was preceded in death by Mother-Evelyn Emma "Eva" Zika (died 5/16/1981), Father-Charles Robert Zika, Sr. (died 1/24/1968), Brother-Charles R. Zika, Jr. (died 8/24/1972), Sister-Carlotta M. Prott (died 5/18/1990), and an Infant Brother-Eugene J. Zika (died 4/15/1928 @ age 5 months).