

Elinor M. Hall Stille

April 19, 1932 - December 5, 2018

Elinor M. Hall Stille, age 86 of Highland, IL, died Wednesday, December 05, 2018, in rural Pocahontas, IL.

She was born April 19, 1932, in Highland, IL, the daughter of John and Irene (nee Brown) Cullen.

On March 15, 1952 she married Earl W. Hall. He passed away March 6, 1994. She later remarried Marvin L. Stille. He passed away September 22, 2012.

She was a member of Salem United Church of Christ. She was also a member of Women's Guild, Church Council, many other Church Boards, Church Choir and Sunday School Teacher; Bond County Homemakers Extension; Highland Women's Connection; and active in the Faith Countryside Community Village.

Born at Highland, IL; grew up at Troy, IL, until 1961. She and her husband Earl then moved to Old Ripley, east of Alhambra, where they moved onto the Brown family farm. She was a homemaker and helped her husband with many tasks around the farm. In 1995 she moved to Highland shortly after Earl's death. She later remarried and moved to New Douglas to the Stille family farm. She later moved back to Highland in January of 2013 after Marvin's death. She enjoyed family and friends, sewing, music, church, traveling within the states and overseas, spending time at Florida during the winter and loved to read. She had a very strong faith and lived life to the fullest.
