“ I met Elli when she lived in Marine, Illinois. I was best friends with Gay. Ellie gave Gay a "hard time" with us hanging out, saying that I was "too young" for her to be running around with! I was 17 and Gay was 21 or 22.... lol... and so the years went by and it finally didn't make her any difference any more how old we were. Elli was making gravy one day at the house and she showed me the correct way to stir it - one way only with the spoon, continuously. I still make it that way today, 45 plus years later.... She always had the best smile and sense of humor and I will never forget her. She was a kind person and a great mom, even though I was way too young to have around... !!! Fly high Miss Elli
