

Elva D. Lueking

October 9, 1913 - November 8, 2012

Elva D. Lueking, age 99 of rural Edwardsville, formerly of Hamel, Hoffman, and Centralia IL, was called by her Savior, Jesus, to eternal life on Thursday, November 08, 2012, from her residence.

She was born October 09, 1913, in Carlyle, IL, the daughter of Edward and Pearl (nee Johnson) Boelling.

On August 12, 1933, she married Walter Lueking who preceded her in death on August 7, 1995 .

She was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church. She was also a member of Saint Paul Ladies Aid.

Elva was born at Carlyle and grew up there. After her marriage she and her husband lived near Posey on a farm. They moved to Hoffman and managed a grocery store. They then moved south of Hoffman and farmed; then Centralia and Hamel. Elva husband was a Postmaster and farmer, and she helped him with the farm and the Post Office as Assistant Post Master. She was an active member of the Ladies' Aid at the Lutheran churches in Hoffman, Centralia and Hamel. Elva was a devoted wife and mother who enjoyed gardening, quilting and baking. She was known for her cookies and coffee cake.
