I was a member of the Lancaster family for a few years in the 70s. I remember Pam and Bob wanting another baby for quite awhile then finally they were expecting!! I remember when they brought her home from the hospital and asked me to be her godmother at her baptism. Also she had such pretty blue eyes that almost immediately turned a deep brown. Learning to talk she pronounced her name “Ewin Mawie Wood.” Just random memories like sitting at Pam’s kitchen table and we started giggling at Erin sitting in the corner drinking a bottle in just a diaper. And how she worshipped her brothers!! I exited the family a few years later and completely lost track. Mark, Erin and I caught up on Facebook. She was so torn up bout losing her granny last December. Well they are reunited now. My thoughts and are with all of you. So unbelievably sad. Love- Linda Lancaster Horvath
