“ Evelyn and I met 20 plus years ago when she brought her great grandson to a daycare I worked at. Through the years we became good friends. She was always there for me when I needed her and I tried to be there for her. I will miss her deeply .Now she can rest in peace.

“ My cousin Evelyn was a very strong woman. As a youngster, I always looked up to her for her strength in dealing with whatever came along. When I was older and moved from the Highland area, I saw less of Evelyn, but always enjoyed her company. The last few years have been difficult for her and it is good that she is now at rest.
