

Florence A. Isert

June 3, 1927 - January 1, 2019

Florence "Flo" A. Isert, age 91 of Highland, IL, died Tuesday, January 01, 2019, at her residence in rural Highland, IL.

She was born June 03, 1927, in Germantown, IL, the daughter of George and Elizabeth (nee Schmitz) Koldehoff.

On November 18, 1946, she married Richard A Isert at St. Engelbert Catholic Church in St. Louis, MO. He passed away on January 10, 2013.

She was a member of Saint Paul Catholic Church.

Florence was born in Germantown, IL and had worked at a nursing home. She later worked at Dance Brothers Hatchery, and later became a seamstress. She lived in St. Louis for five years and after her marriage she moved to Highland where she and her husband farmed with his father and brother. They ran a dairy until the 1980's and a grain farm until 2000. Flo loved dancing, swing music, Frank Sinatra, Perry Como and Dean Martin. She was a hard working woman and an excellent cook. Christmas was a special time for her and she loved and took care of her family and her husband, who she deeply loved.
