

Frances B. Huhn

February 22, 1922 - August 18, 2024

Frances B. Huhn, age 102 of Alhambra, IL, died Sunday, August 18, 2024, at Carlyle Health Care Center in Carlyle, IL.

She was born on Wednesday, February 22, 1922, in Shiocton, WI, the daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (nee Wissinger) Weber.

On Sunday, June 13, 1943, she married Russell Joseph Huhn.

She was a member of St. Gertrude Catholic Church, St. Gertrude Altar Society and the VFW Post 5694-Auxiliary.

Frances was born in Shiocton, Wisconsin and grew up in that area. She and her family moved to St. Louis, in 1938. After marriage her husband was sent over seas, during WWII; she then moved back to Wisconsin. In 1949 they moved to St. Louis and later in 1969, moved to Alhambra, where they built their home. While living in St, Louis, she became the first woman manager of a Quick Shop, Manchester , MO. Later she and her husband owned and operated Circle H Bar, Highland, IL. She enjoyed baking, cooking, gardening, canning and always surrounded by her family. The VFW Fish Fry slaw recipe came from Frances. She had many hobbies, always baking a cake for family or for her grandchildren's birthdays, painting and always on the go.

“ I was sad to hear about Frances passing. At 102 yrs. old she lived a good life -spending her last few years living with each of her children I'm sure brought a smile to her face. I thought of Frances as being a strong confident woman who wasn't afraid to speak her mind. I remember the visits to the farm in the summer time it was always fun. Selina Daniels and family
