“ I will never forget that white blonde hair that her dad and my dad were noted for. Also she had a loud voice which she inherited from Aunt Doris's side and from the May side also. She bred Bulldogs; I bred Shih Tzus. She was kind enough to take my Annie and care for her when I couldn't. Now Annie lives with her brother Steve and wife Pat May. She was a very caring person and a hard worker. She is now at peace with Aunt Doris, Uncle Les, her husband Ed, daughter Nikki, Stepfather Carl and the rest of her relatives on both sides. I know that you are smiling down on us and I can hear that loud voice telling us "I am at peace." Love you Cuz. Its never goodbye. Its see you later. Prayers for Brea and her family. May God bless all.
