

Gladys M. Riechmann

July 8, 1914 - November 29, 2012

Gladys M. Riechmann, age 98 of Carlyle, IL, died Thursday, November 29, 2012, at Heila Healthcare of Greenville in Greenville, IL.

She was born on Wednesday, July 08, 1914, in Saint Louis, MO, the daughter of Leslie and Emelia (nee Herchenroeder) Rule.

On Saturday, June 10, 1933, she married Julius E. Riechmann.

Gladys was born and reared in St. Louis. After marriage lived at Spanish Lake, St. Louis; then moved to a place north of Alhambra, later she and her husband purchased a farm northeast of Alhambra and lived there. She taught school at a one room Hoxby School near Alhambra. She then worked for the State of Illinois at the Public Aid Office, retiring as a supervisor. She and her husband owned a house at Lake of the Ozarks. After her husband died she moved to Hamel; then Edwardsville; later Keysport. She lived on her own up until 2010. She enjoyed eating out and entertaining friends and family at her home. She traveled the world for many years, a lot of it was with her mother.

Survivors include:

Grandchild - Paul (Sue) Daiber, Granger, IN

Grandchild - Dennis (Barb) Daiber, Highland, IL

Grandchild - Kevin (Pam) Daiber, Saint Louis, MO

Grandchild - Terry (Kelly) Daiber, Pocahontas, IL

Grandchild - Sherry (Mike) Zick, Highland, IL

Great Grandchildren - Many

Great Great Grandchildren - Several.

She was preceded in death by:

Husband - Julius E. Riechmann died 11/8/1971 at age 66

Mother - Emelia . Rule nee Herchenroeder

Father - Leslie E. Rule

Daughter - Barbara J. Daiber died 11/28/2005

Son In-law - Kenneth L. Daiber died 10/12/2001

Brother - Leslie E. Rule, Jr. died 1958

Sister - Alice Hegwein.