“ There is never the right words to express how you feel when you lose someone very close to you. My dad was a wonderful man that didn't deserve to go thru everything he did. He is the strongest man I have ever met. He was strong willed and fought for his family to the very end. My dad always worked hard for his family to provide the best he could and I appreciate every second that God gave us with him. I am very glad he went in peace and isn't suffering anymore, but all I can say is GOD, why why why? I know he moves in mysterious ways and does things for a reason. He may have had wanted him up there, but I NEED him with me. I am glad I was there with family to watch him take his last breath and say my goodbyes. Without the rest of my family I couldn't survive. The light in my daughters eyes remind me of my father's and will continue to give me strength I never thought I had. Life is very unfair and time will have to help me heal.

I miss you Daddy

A million times I'll need you. A million questions I have that I wish I asked you. A million times I'll cry. Wishing that I can just hold you. If Love alone could have saved you. You never would have died. In Life I loved you dearly with all the love my heart could hold. In death I love you still. In my heart you hold a place. That no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you. But you didn't go alone. Part of me went with you. The day God took you home. Things will never be the same. And all though it hurts so bad. I will smile whenever I hear your name and be proud you were my Dad.

LOVE YOU ALWAYS, Your daughter Michelle.
