“ Harry was a close friend in the past and enjoyed lots of time together back then and drank quite a bit of beer and caught lots of fish together. God bless my buddy and the entire family. I'm still breathing and at assisted living now.

“ Harry was a warm, generous person. He loved doing things for the kids not only his kids and grandkids, but for others he did so much for Shriners loves playing in the parades for the kids to see them. Smile played Santa Claus during Christmas came to our house for Christmas eve one year to play Santa Claus for my grandchildren, their faces lite up like the Christmas tree, I'll always remember his fish fries ,he made the best fried fish in the county , you will be missed by many , rest in peace , give Sandy a hug from me
