

Jacquelin "Jackie" Schumacher

November 16, 1942 - December 12, 2017

Jacquelin "Jackie" Schumacher, age 75 of Highland, IL, died Tuesday, December 12, 2017, at Memorial Hospital in Belleville, IL.

She was born on Monday, November 16, 1942, in Walnut Grove, MO, the daughter of Benjamin F. and Hazen M. (nee Pursley) Parrish.

On Wednesday, June 16, 1962, she married Robert C. Schumacher at Granite City, IL, who survives.

She was a member of Highland Hope United Methodist Church. She was also a member of St. Louis Weaver's Guild, Alton Weaver's Guild, Emotions Anonymous in Highland and former Girl Scout Leader.

Jackie was born in Walnut Grove, MO, where she grew up on the family farm. She graduated Walnut Grove High School. She was the first child in her family that did not attend Country School. She moved to Granite City, IL in 1960 to work for State Radio. She worked at Roots Country Store in Highland for many years, Meyer House in North St. Louis for a number of years selling yarn and weaving supplies. She moved to Alhambra in 1964 on Route 4, then moved to a farm south of Alhambra in 1971, and to Highland in 1997. Her Highland Home named "Finally" is recognized historically. She and her husband moved to Faith Countryside Homes and Village in 2013. She enjoyed quilting, weaving, spinning, gardening and worked in the Nursery at Highland Hope Church. She made quilts for most of the babies there. She also enjoyed traveling, especially to the Blue Ridge Parkway, Europe, Hawaii, and the East to West Coasts of the USA.
