“ The best thing my grandma ever did for me was show me her strong faith in God. No matter how far along her Alzheimer's progressed she could always sing hymns better than any thing else. Even though she is now dead I know truly she lives with Jesus and has regained every memory she had lost. She has gone home and one day I will see her again in Heaven when I arrive home as well. Thank you God for letting me know her.

“ From our meeting, in 2002 in France and in 2004 in USA, we will keep the long lived memory of the kindness and Jackies simplicity. She was always pleasant.

We pray for her and all your family and think about you very much.
