“ Jim painted my house when I moved to town just over a year ago. Each night we would talk my ear off about football and stories about growing up in the area. He was kind enough to even help me move a big couch downstairs as I didn't know anyone else in town at the time. Most people would not go out of their way to help a stranger in that manner. Sorry to hear he has departed us.

“ To Jim's family: I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was a very nice man who painted the exterior of my house a few years ago. He went above and beyond to make the job perfect. Truly a professional!! While he worked at our house he talked a lot about how much his wife and sons meant to him. He was very proud of his family. Lisa, he even had you come to help me to decide on the color. Thank you. Logan, I remember teaching you math in 8th grade. You are a tribute to your dad.

Sincerely,
Irene Armbruster

“ We are so sorry to hear about Jim. He painted our house and we loved having here. He did a great job. We loved hearing his stories. One day I had a crock pot going and he talked about how good it smelled. What a wonderful guy, good painter....the community will miss him. Jeanne and Arnie Meyer.

“ To the Brave family: It is with a heavy heart that I learn of Jim's passing. We are relatives through our fathers and grandparents, however, I really remember Jim from so many years ago in high school. Laugh if you might but Jim to me will always be a thin wirey guy, a good athlete and always wearing a smile, sometimes for a reason that you might find out about later. I hear stories about what a great father and person he was and I don't doubt that he continued to be pleasant and well loved. I am truly sorry for your loss. Mary Bellm Allen
