“ Janice was my cousin and we both lived in Edwardsville. I remember her mostly when she was a teenager, as she was 8 years older than I was. I was so fascinated with all of her make-up, her cute teenage clothes, and most of all...her boyfriends! I think I got into her things a lot when I visited...she never got mad at me. Sometimes she babysat for me. After i married and moved away, I could see, when I returned to visit after her parents had passed, that Jan had really stepped up to be the matriarch of her own family, just as Aunt Jo had done. She always spent time with her children and grandchildren...and even all her great-grandchildren. She was so patient and showed great love and support for her family. As she grew older, she maintained all of her hometown connections and had lots of friends. Jan lived and passed in a large way, not looking back, or worrying about the future...she lived in the present and she passed as she lived...with strength and with her family around her. A memory of Jan from her cousin Barbara Caban Homer
