

Jeanne E. Heuberger

February 11, 1945 - January 27, 2026

Jeanne Esther Heuberger, age 80 of Highland, IL, died Tuesday evening, January 27, 2026, at her home in Highland, IL.

She was born on Sunday, February 11, 1945, in East Saint Louis, IL, the daughter of Walter and Vera (nee Rieger) Kuhn.

August 30, 1968, she married Russell Jon Heuberger at St. John United Church of Christ, Trenton, IL, who resides at their home.

As Jeanne was in the womb, her biological father, Edward C. Roszkowski was killed in action in November 1944 during a bombing raid over Germany in WWII. Her Mother married William Midgley and they had Margaret Ann (Mickey). When the girls were very little he was killed in an automobile accident. After a number of years, her mother met and married Walter Kuhn, Jr. who adopted the girls, and had 2 more. A girl, Deborah (Debbi) and a boy, Thomas (Tom). The family of 6 lived in Tulsa for several years before moving back to Trenton, IL.

Jeanne graduated from Wesclin High School in 1963, attended SIUC, Elmhurst and McKendree Colleges. She worked on a cruise ship on the Great Lakes, at Alton Box Board and for the City of Highland before pursuing her passion of the arts. Starting at Highland City Office, she soon became the first female employee to work at the Highland Police Department. She was responsible for dispatch, record keeping and training new communications personnel. She developed a filing system and testing procedure for all new telecommunicators and helped develop the area's 911 system making Highland one of Southern Illinois Public Safety Answering Points. She took EMT Training and became one of the persons responsible for responding to emergency ambulance calls in Highland and surrounding 911 area. After her 15yr dedication to the City Jeanne pursued her main passion for the arts and taught decorative painting classes locally, regionally and at the National Convention in Dallas. She spent many, many hours painting to sell her artwork at juried craft shows and in the mid 1980's, opened "Isn't This Nice". She sold her handcrafted and hand painted items, expanding her business to also selling gourmet foods, coffees, candies, delivering beautiful gift bags and lavish gift baskets around the globe. In 2000, she attended and soon graduated from The Healing Arts Center in St. Louis as a Nationally Certified Massage Therapist specializing in the gift of Reiki.

She found particular joy spending time with her children, grandchildren, extended family and her friends. She enjoyed reading, yoga, meditation, dancing and music, trying her luck at the casinos and playing cards and belonged to several bridge clubs. She was an active member of St. John United Church of Christ.

“ Dear Russ, Stacy, and Keely,
After reading of Jeanne’s passing, she has been on my mind daily. She was one strong woman who never backed off from sharing her opinion. She did it in a respectful manner, but with conviction! Time with Jeanne was always fun, and you usually came away with some new tidbit of knowledge or humor. She was one of a kind and will be missed and remembered by many!
