

Jo Etta "Jo" Miller

June 2, 1935 - October 27, 2025

Jo Etta (Plocher) Miller, age 90, of Highland, Illinois, passed away peacefully on October 27, 2025, surrounded by her loving children at Greenville Nursing and Rehab Center.

Born June 2, 1935, in Pierron, Illinois, Jo was the daughter of Orville and Leta (Pfister) Plocher. She grew up on the family dairy farm and attended Pierron Grade School, a one-room schoolhouse where she began her lifelong love of learning and community. She developed a strong work ethic and deep appreciation for family, faith, and friendship. Jo received the 4-H Key Award and served on the Illinois State 4-H Key Club Board. She graduated from Highland High School in 1953. In 1957, she was honored as Madison County Rural Youth Queen.

Throughout her life, Jo remained active in her community. She was a 4-H leader, a dedicated member of the Madison County Extension Homemakers and the Highland Women's Club, and served for many years as a Madison County Election Judge. She always gave her time and talents to support others and strengthen the community she loved.

On March 29, 1958, she married Donen Keith Miller at the Evangelical United Church of Christ in Highland, Illinois, and together they built a beautiful life filled with family and friendships.

Jo worked for Highland Supply Corporation, Sanitary Milk Producers in St. Louis, and as a Tupperware Manager before founding Jo Miller Interiors in 1979, where her creative touch brightened countless homes across Highland and the surrounding communities. She later became a Realtor with Holzinger Real Estate, where her friendly spirit and community knowledge were invaluable to her clients.

Her favorite pastimes included bowling, golf, dancing, sewing, and spending time with her family. Jo excelled at cooking and baking and loved making Christmas cookies; that she shared with others. Jo and Don were Honorary Members of the Highland Country Club for multiple decades, where they shared many friendships and countless rounds of golf with friends.

Known for her fun-loving spirit and quick wit, Jo once earned the nickname “Teen Grandma” after dealing blackjack at a post-prom party for one of her grandchildren — and she kept the game going until 5:30 in the morning. Her sense of humor and energy were unmatched, and she brought joy to every gathering she attended.

Jo lived in Highland, Illinois, until 1997, then in Madison, Alabama, from 1997 to 2004, before returning home to Highland, where she remained until her passing. She often joked that even after her move, she never really left Madison County.

She is survived by her sister Janice (Plocher) Johns; her children Rodney Allen Miller (Janet Kay Dye Miller), Rachelle Lynn (Miller) Sauls (Daniel L. Sauls), and Russell Dean Miller (Heather Lee Kramer); grandchildren Andrew Sauls, Matthew (Mindy N. Miller, O.D) Miller, Zachary Miller, Kirsten Sauls, and Zoe Miller; great-grandchildren Dakota Sauls, Reece Miller, and Elliott Miller; and numerous nieces and nephews who adored their Aunt Jo.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband Donen Keith Miller; her parents Orville and Leta Plocher; her siblings Juanita (Plocher) Parrish Flamm and O. John Plocher; her daughter in-law Michelle (Alexander) Miller; and her grandchildren Abbey Miller and Michael Stein.

Jo will be remembered for her boundless energy, generosity, and devotion to her family. Her love, laughter, and unwavering support will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

Visitation will be held at Spengel-Boulanger Funeral Home in Highland, Illinois, on Wednesday, October 29, 2025, from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Interment will be a private family burial at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery in St. Louis, Missouri, on Thursday, October 30, 2025, where Jo will rest beside her husband, Don.

Memorial contributions may be made to Tunnels of Towers Foundation 501(c)(3) <https://T2T.org> or Meals on Wheels.

Previous Events

Visitation

OCT 29. 4:00 PM (CT)

Spengel-Boulanger Funeral Home - Highland

1501 9th Street

P.O. Box 187

Highland, IL 62249

(618) 654-2133

info@spengel-boulanger.com

Tribute Wall

JD

“ Never missed a gig when Rodney was singing , but frequently had to stop at the ER on her way home .

Jose Diaz - October 29, 2025 at 05:11 PM

RB

“ RX Blues Band purchased the Full Of Love Bouquet for the family of Jo Etta "Jo" Miller.

RX Blues Band - October 28, 2025 at 08:31 PM

RB

“ RX Blues Band planted a Memorial Tree in honor of Jo Etta "Jo" Miller.

RX Blues Band - October 28, 2025 at 08:31 PM

BS

“ Sympathy to her family. God Bless 🙏🙏

Beckie & Bob Schrupf - October 28, 2025 at 08:21 PM

BR

“ Jo Etta talked my parents into letting her take me to my 1st 4-H club meeting of the "HAPPY HOUR" 4-H CLUB about 1953. I loved it and learned how to sew and cook. Later she introduced me to the Madison County Rural Youth Club which I joined until 1961 when I married Vernon Reinacher from St. Jacob, IL. Many happy memories! Barbara A. (Zollner) Reinacher

Barbara Ann (Zollner) Reinacher - October 28, 2025 at 05:28 PM

PL

“ Our thoughts and prayers for the family. Jo was a huge community and church based person who would help anyone that needed help. My memories of Jo are definitely from 4-H group when she was our leader. We had so many great times. She was also a fellow bowler that gave us great times. God Speed Jo you will be missed by many.

Pam Ulrich Lecerf - October 28, 2025 at 05:22 PM