“ My condolences to the Arnold family. Johnny was a fixture of Millersburg; especially his walking around town. As a kid he would make a point to stop when he saw us and say hello. He especially loved Halloween and giving out the full size Hershey bars. I loved his generous spirit as a kid and my daughters had the opportunity to visit Johnny during the past Halloweens and see his kindness towards kids and receive a full size Hershey bar themselves. 2019 was his last Halloween in Millersburg and he was sad it would be his last. He looked forward to being able to give to the kids and bring happiness. He knew everyone and everyone in Millersburg knew Johnny. Millersburg was very much his world and he made it a much better place. People like Johnny are the good in this world and make us see how great we can be.
