In fact, she and her daughter drove 14 hours in one day just to see her grandson Jackson run a cross country meet. “ I’m so sorry to hear of Joice’s passing. I worked with her for 10 years at SCU and she always had a smile and funny comment ready whenever I’d visit her desk or run into her in the hall. She was one of the people who made work feel like home. I know how much she loved her family and will be thinking of you all.
