

Joseph G. Haegele III

April 15, 1951 - January 2, 2026

Joseph G. "Joe" Haegele III, age 74 of New Douglas, IL, died Friday, January 2, 2026, at Saint John's Hospital in Springfield, IL.

He was born on Sunday, April 15, 1951, in Saint Louis, Missouri, the son of Joseph and Virginia (nee Crano) Haegele.

On Friday, August 27, 1971, he married Lynn Marie Haegele nee Gruenenfelder who survives.

He was a member of Tennessee Walking Horse Association, Chemical Workers Union of East St. Louis, Leef Township, and former member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Joe was born in St. Louis, Missouri, and grew up in Marine, Illinois. He attended St. Paul Catholic School and graduated from Triad High School in 1969. Joe worked on the family farm with his father, then in 1976, he started working for a chemical company. After retirement, he worked for New Douglas Township. Joe's biggest hobby was showing Tennessee Walking Horses at fairs, where he won many awards and trophies. He was very dedicated to his children and grandchildren. He attended all the grandchildren's sporting events. He loved his dog, Buddy, and cat, Elsay. Joe enjoyed fishing and was huge Kansas City Chiefs fan and never missed a game on TV.

“ My love and prayers to the Haegele family. They were my neighbors when we lived in Alhambra. I remember Joe's smile and the love he had for his family. I can imagine how big his smile was when Bobbie was there waiting for him. What a joyous reunion that would be.
