“ Judy was a wonderful friend. We became close friends in 1969. Had so many fun times and sadly some very sad times but we remained friends our children were friends too. I met Joey when he started dating Judy. What a good guy and so darn funny his personality matched hers. You couldn't be around them with out having a great time. When Judy smiled she lit up the room. They loved and stood together through good and bad times. I loved them both. Goodbye my friends you will be missed. I'm blessed to have had both of you in my life.

Love Sherry

“ Judy and I worked together at A. G. Edwards. She had the best reputation as a good person, as well as an excellent employee. I considered Judy one of my best friends and always shared a good relationship with her. I admired her for the way she considered marriage. Though we lost touch, I thought of her often. I will always think of Judy as I knew her and my heart goes out to the family. I know this loss is a tough one. Sharon Grimm

“ So sorry to hear this. Judy and I were besties back when I worked at A.G. Edwards. After leaving there we remained friends and eventually lost touch but we both knew that even though we didn't stay in touch, we would always remain the very best of friends. My heart goes out to her family. God bless you yours Judy; I'll always have a special place in my heart for you. See you on the other side.
