

Junior C. Hamann

December 5, 1929 - February 14, 2009

Junior C. Hamann, age 79, of Alhambra, IL., formerly of Mt. Olive, Il, died Saturday, February 14, 2009, at Hitz Memorial Home in Alhambra, IL.

He was born December 5, 1929, in Old Ripley, IL., the son of Henry Christian and Anna Minnie (nee Schneider) Hamann.

On September 8, 1956, he married Joan M. Hamann, nee Boston , who passed away June 7, 2005.

Mr. Hamann was born at Old Ripley, IL; grew up in the Old Ripley, Marine & Alhambra area. He served with the US Army during the Korean War -1952/54. During his life he had worked for the Highland Box Board Company in Highland; Commonwealth Steel in Granite City, IL; Illinois Central Railroad from the Mt. Pulaski, IL yard; Edwardsville Creamery and then for over 30 years at the Prairie Farms Dairy in Carlinville, IL, where he retired from as a foreman. Mr. & Mrs. Hamann had lived at Staunton and Mt. Olive (moving there in the late 1970\'s) and then to the Hitz Home in Alhambra. They enjoyed dancing and every Saturday night they went to a dance.

Survivors include Brother-Albert F. Hamann of Saint Charles, Mo., Sister-Elnora M. Hamann of Alhambra, Ill., Brother-Elmer D. (Margaret C.) Hamann of Pfafftown, N.C., Brother-Norman H. (Judy) Hamann of Moro, Ill., Brother-

Harold D. Hamann of Worden, Ill., Brother-Daune H. Hamann of Jerseyville, Ill., Brother-Larry E. Hamann of Highland, Ill., Sister-Betty F. (Larry) Hefferman of Edwardsville, Ill., Nieces & Nephews-Numerous

He was preceeded in death by Father-Henry Christian Frederick Hamann, Mother-Anna Minnie Marie Hamann, nee Schneider, Wife-Joan M. Hamann, nee Boston {DOD 06/07/2005}, Sister-Irene C. Kantner {DOD 1978}, Sister-Loretta A. Meier { DOD 2005}, Half Brother-Lewis H. Hamann {DOD 1942}, Half Sister-Alvera R. Volentine {DOD 2000}, Half Sister-Henrietta C. Buske {DOD 1969}