“ I have very fond memories of my Uncle Stan and Aunt Karen as a young boy growing up in O'Fallon. All the aunts and uncles gave us lots of cousins to play with when we would all get together at grandma and grandpa Klein's house. The adults would play card games after dinner and the kids would run around in the yard or go to the park across the street. It was a great place to grow up and I was very sad when our dad went back into the Navy and we moved away to CA.

I specifically remember Aunt Karen's laugh! She always seemed to be the one having the most fun at these family gatherings. The picture that I have of her in my mind is the younger of the two posted on the website. I remembered her as not only fun loving but also very pretty and Uncle Stan was a lucky guy!

I also remember wishing that they lived closer as we didn't get to see them as much as some of the others. However, when we did all get together, it made it that much more special. I cherish those childhood memories and am thankful for the times I was able to be in her company.

Thank you Aunt Karen for your laughter and your love for "your favorite nephew"!
