“ I grew up with Karen as a next-door neighbor many years ago. There were no cell phones or electronic devices, just your imagination to create entertainment. The neighborhood kids would get together to play baseball, hide n seek or some other type of activity... Karen and her parents would eventually move to a different section of town, but we continued to go to church together and were classmates from first grade until we graduated from Wesclin in 1960. Went our separate ways after that. but would get together at class reunions. Besides a classmate, I call her my friend.

“ I knew Karen while growing up in Trenton. I used to see her at what was then Ranz Ford Motor Company on Main Street where her Father, Wally, worked. My condolences to her family and friends.
