“ One thing I will always remember about Kathy was her deep belief in God. There was a major Rt 66 Festival right after both of my maternal grandparents and my uncle had died in an 11 month time frame. I was pushing forward and had not taken time to grieve and I was miserable. Kathy sensed that and we had a long talk in amongst the festival activities. She quoted scripture and said prayers with me. Her actions came from a most unlikely source as I had not had that kind of deep personal relationship with her. But when Monday rolled around and I was back home I felt a lot better and a weight I'd not realized quite that I was carrying was gone. I will always remember her words that weekend kindly and be grateful God planted her in my path. RIP Kathy. You fought a valiant fight to the end.
