“ Keith was truly an exceptional accountant and an even more exceptional person. He had such a kind spirit, a patient heart, and a genuine warmth that made every interaction meaningful. Each month, as we reviewed my accounts, I would come with countless questions and very little understanding of accounting or computers. Yet Keith never once made me feel inadequate or burdensome. With his calm and gracious nature, he would simply say, “Aw... it’s okay,” while patiently helping me through everything and waiting as I searched for documents or tried to make sense of it all.

That level of kindness is rare. Keith carried himself with compassion, professionalism, and a truly good soul. I am deeply saddened by his passing and will sincerely miss him. It is often the kindest and brightest souls who leave the greatest impact on our hearts. Please know that Keith was deeply appreciated, and his memory will always remain close to my heart. Love, Marsha McCleod and The Inner City Youth Tutoring, Inc. Family
