“ I made money mowing lawns when I was 15. Had an old mower that I could fit in the trunk of my car. My routine was simple: Mow the lawn, the mower would break down, drive home, knock on my neighbor's door and have Kenny fix it for me. He must have done this 20 times without charging me a dime. Thanks, Kenny. You'll be missed. My condolences to the family.

“ My favorite memory of Kenny was when he played Santa Claus when my boys were little. He was so real and my boys never knew it was Kenny. Loved him very much.
