“ Tanis, I am truly sorry about your dad, I really liked him, we had a lot of fun times in the classroom on the basketball courts and cutting while his grass. I got away with a lot of stuff because we were neighbors I know! but he was always great to me! always! your dad was so soft-spoken, because of this he did NOT get the respect or credit he deserved as one of the basketball GREATS of Highland IL! Coaching and playing on the best team in Highlands history and coaching the ONLY undefeated team in Highland History — chew on that Highland folk. Please give your mom my sympathy as I have not seen her in 40-years.

“ Lynn and Tanis you have my sympathy. Ken helped shape many young men's lives. He was a wonderful coach and someone that the students could look up to.

“ Lynn and Tanis you have my deepest sympathy. Ken and I were friends and colleges for many years. I helped Ken stage his basketball games and ran the clock at Highland Jr. High. When Ken retired from coaching, he kept the score book at Highland Middle School so that he could continue to be involved in basketball. Ken was always a pleasure to work with, and we had many conversations about basketball and life.

“ Lynn and Tanis, you have my warmest and deepest sympathy. Your husband and father was my sixth-grade teacher and jr. high basketball coach. He was inspiring, fun, and taught me a lot in both positions during those formidable years! I also remember reading about his play in beating Collinsville in the sectional or super-sectional tournament, including his running one-handed shot from the corner late in the game. Lynn, if I remember correctly, you grew up across the street from my grandmother and it was always a thrill to see either you or your husband while I was visiting her. I have always had the greatest respect and appreciation for everything that Ken Wildhaber taught me about life and basketball! He was a WONDERFUL man and teacher!!

Mr Wildhaber was my 6th grade teacher and 7th and 8th grade basketball coach. I don't know if we ever lost a game. He always had a great smile, was very positive, a true gentleman and loved coaching. I will always remember his corduroy suit. He made a huge contribution to all the kids he taught and coached. We will all remember him.
