“ I knew Kevin the entire time he worked at Edward Jones. In the early years, there were frequent happy hours and celebrations of various life events. As the years went by and we did not cross paths as often, running into him always yielded the same result. A huge smile, a hug and a genuine "Bobbie, how are you?" With Kevin you always knew the question was real...he wasn't looking for the standard "Fine."; he really wanted to know how you were. As others have mentioned once you knew Kevin, he was a friend for life. So very heartbroken that his life has ended way too soon.

As others have also mentioned he loved his family, his wife and his daughter Emily. Proud is too tame a word for how he felt about you Emily. While his Edward Jones family can't begin to understand what his family is enduring, please know as the news spread on Wednesday the grief could be felt and seen on the faces of all who knew him. We have lost someone special. You all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I would like to tell you how sorry I am to read of Kevin's passing this morning. I was Kevin's teacher in high school for several subjects. I also taught his wife and sister. I remember tall, somewhat shy Kevin who was always a pleasure to teach. May your sweetest memories of this dear man comfort you greatly in this truly sad time. May God Bless and keep you safe. Sincerely, David G. Allsup.

“ I went to high school with Kevin and Lisa. My husband Bob and I consider them special friends. I remember Kevin as a warm, caring wonderful person. Although he was a bit shy in high school, especially around the girls, he always made those around him feel special. I adore both Kevin and Lisa. I will remember Kevin always.

My thoughts and prayers are with Lisa and his family in this time of sorrow.

“ I have worked with Kevin over 22 years at Edward Jones and he always had a smile on his face. I'll never forget the day he hired me, it was like talking to an old friend and not someone who would become my boss. I love you Kevin, and I know you are in a safe place!

“ I would like to extend my deepest sympathies to Kevin's family. He interviewed me for a programmer/analyst position at Edward Jones back in 1998. After that interview, I felt as if I had known him for years. He just had that kind of personality; he was such a kind man with a good sense of humor. I didn't work directly with Kevin but was always impressed with how he remembered a face and a name. If he saw you on the Jones campus he always greeted you with a smile and would ask how you were doing. He will be missed by many. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
