

Kingsley C. Gobble

July 1, 1936 - January 19, 2010

Kingsley C Gobble, age 73, of Marine, IL., died Tuesday, January 19, 2010, at his home Marine, IL.

He was born July 1, 1936, in Madison, IL, the son of Eugene and G. Bernadine (nee Mace) Gobble.

Born at Madison, IL; raised at Granite City, IL. Enlisted into the US Army; he was in the Parachute Infantry with the 101st Airborne. After the US Army he was a contractor for 15 years and built many homes in the local area. He then was a Operating Engineer with Local 520 for 33 years. He enjoyed traveling, fishing, reading and western movies.

Survivors include Daughter-Rita J. (Lonnie) Hoehn of Branson, Mo., Daughter-Rebecca A. Gobble of Branson, Mo., Daughter-Lisa G. (Eddie) Hill of Webster Groves, Mo., Step-son-John A. \"Andy\" (Shelly) Steinwagner of Highland, Ill., Step-daughter-Donna M. (Anthony) Buzzitta of Little Rock, Ark., Step-daughter-Valerie A. Strom of Saint Jacob, Ill., Companion-Imogene M. Spudic of Litchfield, Ill., Brother-Warren Jay Gobble of Poplar Bluff, Mo., Sister-Betty J. Smock of Bridgeport, Texas, 16 Grandchildren and 7 Great Grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by Father-Eugene C. Gobble (died 8/19/1992),

Mother-G. Bernadine Gobble, nee Mace (died 12/6/1999), Wife-Norma J. Gobble, Daughter-Cheryl L. Gobble, died Feb. 1977 at age 17, and Sister-Juanita C. Secret .