“ As a friend of Lenore's daughter Linda, I spent many days and nights at the Frey house on the hill. Lenore was always willing to host noisy slumber parties for Linda's friends, giggling until the wee morning hours and playing rock and roll music full blast. She would make us Appian Way pizza from a box (better than Chef Boy-Ar-Dee!) or take us tooling around town in one of the boys' cars which made us feel like hot stuff because Willie and J.R. had cool cars. Ma Frey was like a second mom - she had a ready smile and loved a good joke. She was a unique individual, quite a character, never knew a stranger, and will certainly be missed by all who knew her.

“ Just now learned of the loss of Lenore. I always considered Lenore my stand-in mom during the teen years when I was trying to grow up along with Willie and JR. She tried her best to keep us on the right path (full time job). I have many good memories of times spent at the Frey home on the hill. She was truly a special person and she will be missed.

“ I always enjoyed Mom's company and conversation, especially the JR and Willie tales. From drinking home made wine in her kitchen, gatherings at JR's to a ride on my boat when I had four generations of Freys on board she was always a blast. I will never forget, and I still have it, the very unique gift she gave me on HER birthday. You will have to ask JR about that. Go in peace Lenore, you will be missed.
