

Leslie E. Malan

January 21, 1931 - December 26, 2018

Leslie E. Malan, age 87 of Highland, IL, died Wednesday, December 26, 2018, at Dammert Geriatric Center-Our Lady of the Snow (The Esquilline) in Belleville, IL.

He was born on Wednesday, January 21, 1931, in Highland, IL, the son of Joy and Dorothy (nee Rogier) Malan.

On Saturday, April 28, 1956, he married Mary Helen Scanland at Columbia, Missouri, who survives.

He was a member of First Baptist Church, Highland, IL; First National Bank Board Member; Tri County Water Board Member; Lincoln Farm Business; Farm Management Assoc; and Pork Producers (local and international).

Leslie graduated from Highland High School in 1948, second in his class. He worked on his family farm with his brother, sisters and cousins. He attended the Agricultural Short Course at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Leslie and Roland developed some innovative farming ideas, such as slat houses and building the first liquid manure injector, when there were not available. He was part of the registered service and was drafted into the US Army. He was an Army Lieutenant with proud memories of training at Fort Leonard Wood, MO, and service time spent in Guam during the Korean Conflict. He lived in Highland all of his life, spending only the most recent couple of years in Shiloh or Belleville, IL, for nursing care. He was the founder of Malan Mead subdivision and was a livestock and farm equipment appraiser. He raised and sold purebred Hampshire hogs on an inter-national level with buyers and hogs exported to twenty foreign countries. He enjoyed family vacations to California and Tan-Tar-a, Lake of the Ozark's. He had multiple visits to see family in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Florida and North Dakota. He enjoyed the annual Coyote roundup meals, spent the summers baling hay and straw, and tending to his large garden. He was an active member of the Pork Producers local and international chapters. He sold and raised Crow's seed corn. He was a Deacon at Bethany Baptist Church of Highland for numerous years and also a Trustee and Caretaker of the Gullick Cemetery for many years.
