

Loren P. Kessman

June 21, 1932 - March 20, 2018

Loren P. Kessman, age 85 of Hamel, IL, died Tuesday, March 20, 2018, at Anderson Hospital in Maryville, IL.

He was born on Tuesday, June 21, 1932, in Hamel, IL, the son of Dietrich and Edythe (nee Best) Kessman.

On Sunday, October 13, 1963, he married Judith A. "Judy" Kessman (nee Brandt) who survives.

He was a member of Liberty Worship Center Church in Edwardsville, IL, and former Trustee for the Village of Hamel, IL.

God blessed Loren with an inventor's mind. Born and raised in Hamel, IL, he graduated from Edwardsville High School in 1950 and served in the U.S. Naval Reserve. He worked for his father at Kessman Tank Service in Hamel, and later owned and operated the business with his family. They also established Standard Oil Truck Plaza in Troy, IL, and K-line Truck Wash in Hamel. Loren later founded Vision Screen Printing in Hamel where he designed and sold screen printing equipment. He volunteered as a minister for the Madison County Correction for Christ Ministry and as a counselor and minister at the Community Hope Center in Cottage Hills, IL. He loved spending time with family, especially his grandchildren.

“ Loren and I spent a lot of Sunday's together in the prison ministry. We ministered to the youth mostly. Loren couldn't carry a tune, like me, but he kept right on singing. He sowed the Word of God to thousands and I'm sure he has already met some that says "remember me". May God bless the family and friends.
