“ It is hard for me to say this, but today I lost my Great Aunt Lorene Knackstedt. I had the chance to visit and talk with her on my birthday, Sunday, September 28, 2025, about the state of Nebraska. I shared with her that I was living in Omaha, Nebraska, and that I had a new job. She responded, "Megan, I would love to go to Nebraska and see you. It sounds like a lovely place, and I'm glad you are enjoying it there." At that moment, I never expected it would be the last time I would get to visit and chat with her. She gave me the biggest hug that day, and I wish I could have another hug from her now.

New Year's Eve is going to be a difficult holiday for me since I lost my grandpa on December 30 and now my great aunt on December 31. Great Aunt Lorene, please save me a seat beside you in heaven, and I will tell you all about Nebraska and what that state is like. Thank you for loving me for all the years I've known you.

Great Uncle Louie and the rest of the Knackstedt family, you will all be in my prayers during this difficult time. I love you all.
