

Louise A. Guentensberger

December 10, 1915 - July 25, 2005

Louise A. Guentensberger, 89, of Highland died Monday, July 25, 2005, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Highland.

Mrs. Guentensberger was born December 10, 1915, in Highland to Charles and Anda (Dresch) Hediger. On April 4, 1936, at the E & R parsonage she married Edward J. Guentensberger Jr. and he survives.

She attended Kyle School and graduated from the eighth grade in 1930. She worked as a seamstress at Marine Garment Company and later worked for SelMar in St. Louis. She was a lifelong resident of Highland. She and her husband both quilted and made one quilt every year. They loved to travel and went on many trips, including travels to Switzerland and Canada. She was a member of the Evangelical United Church of Christ.

She also is survived by a daughter, Marion L. (Bill) Reilson of Alhambra; two sons, Edward J. (Margie) Guentensberger of Yorkville, Ill., and Larry G. (Barbara) Guentensberger of Highland; three sisters, Anda Donnelly of Highland, Alice (Marvin) Bleisch of Highland and Dorothy Kroner of Highland; eight grandchildren, Michael (Shari) Reilson of Silver Lake, Wis., Patricia (Tony) Italiano of Highland, Brad (Kay) Reilson of Marine, Scott (Laura) Reilson of St. Jacob, Pamela (Jim) Jensen of Yorkville, Todd (Debbie) Guentensberger of Durham, N.C., Jeffrey (Susan) Guentensberger of Cleveland, Tenn., and Shelby (Doug) Cummins of Casey, Ill., and 15 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Charles Hediger and a great-grandchild.

Memorials may be made to Faith Countryside Homes or to Mid-America Transplant Association.