

Margot A. Manheimer

February 1, 1939 - August 21, 2018

Margot A. Manheimer passed away August 21, 2018 in St. Louis, MO. She was 79 years old. Margot was born in St. Louis on February 1, 1939 to Eldon C. and Dorothy A. (nee Boulanger) Weder. Soon after, her family returned to Highland, IL where Margot graduated from Highland High School in 1956. She continued her education at William Woods College in Fulton, Missouri, where she was a decorated equestrian. Her passion for art led her to graduate from Washington University with a BFA. While working at an advertising agency, she met her future husband of over 50 wonderful years - Ben Manheimer. Throughout her life, Margot never put down her paintbrush, using vacation photos, landscapes, family members, wildlife and Baseball Cardinal Championships as inspiration. She loved being around animals and her grandchildren's sports and school activities were always a priority.
