“ I worked with Maria in Medical Records at the hospital for multiple years. I always like to tell the story about her experience around Christmas one year. She came in the office steaming mad. Her daughter, Jennifer, was a toddler and always got up in the middle of the night. This morning, Maria woke up, walked down the stairs to a trail of wrapping paper, open boxes and Barbie dolls everywhere. Jennifer had gotten up through the night and unwrapped, unboxed and played with EVERY single gift under the tree, ones for Maria's nieces and nephews, her mom/dad, son, sisters/brothers. Maria was so mad. I remember telling her, someday you will laugh about this. Her reply, "well, it ain't today!"
