“ Charlotte, Dale, Gary, Wayne and Curt,
I am sending you a brief note about your Mother. The last time Nancy and I visited with Vince and Marie was at their 50th wedding anniversary at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Highland. Nancy had put together a family tree and posted it on the hallway wall going into the main hall. It drew a lot of interest.
Your Mom and Dad were meant for each other. They loved each other until "death do you part". I remember mostly the house they owned on Trenton Road. I remember how hard your dad worked on making concrete septic tanks, etc. Your mom was always in good spirits. Her obit picture truly captured her radiant beauty. May God bless all of you and your families. Maybe someday we'll have another Horstmann family reunion and we can visit face-to-face. You have our sympathies.

“ My fondest memory is how cleverly she would interrogate us teenage boys to see if we were up to no good and once she figured out it wasn't too bad, she'd let it slide, but not without subtly letting us know she was on to us.

“ My earliest memory is how fascinated I was watching her feed clothing through a ringer washer. In that same basement on Trenton road is where she found me sleep walking. I woke up crying and she kissed my tears and carried me back to bed. Out back she'd throw out table scraps that helped cultivate her garden. I learned you could can just about anything. When I was younger, she took me to the doctor when I broke my tailbone. As an adult she nursed my hangover with B12 and dry toast...and it worked. Sunday breakfast was the best with coffee cake and fried down bacon. I knew I could always "take 5" but I never did. Instead I learned how they got oranges and peanuts for Christmas and about the first time she saw gramps and how she hated his blue suit. I loved when all the Horstmann girls took her to Ted Drewes and Fitz Root beer but most enjoyed her smiling face at my 2 hour long church service in North City where she said she felt like she had really been to church. She was my spiritual advisor who taught me novenas, the rosary and about the Saints. Thank you for feeding my belly and my soul. I love you grandma. - Shannon Marie
