

Marjorie L. Koelz

December 13, 1930 - July 27, 2005

Marjorie L. "Marge" Koelz, 74, of Highland died Wednesday, July 27, 2005, at St. Luke's Hospital-West in Chesterfield, Mo.

Mrs. Koelz was born December 13, 1930, in Highland to Clemens C. and Anna (Meier) Mettler. On June 25, 1949, at Grantfork UCC she married Kenneth C. Koelz and he survives.

Mrs. Koelz and her husband opened Key Realty in 1975 and she was the broker for the company. They sold the business in 1979 and moved to Altamonte Springs, Florida, where they opened M & K Accessories, a dealer of arch supports. After nine years of living in Florida, they moved back to Highland for a short time. They returned to Florida where she worked for Olin Mills Photography Studio and was the number one salesperson in that district. She enjoyed her grandchildren, shopping, their pet dog, "Holly," and reading. She was a member of Grantfork United Church of Christ and the Realtors Association.

She also is survived by a son, Rick C. Koelz of Chesterfield, Mo., a daughter, Vicky S. (Dwight) Rutz of Highland, three grandchildren, Brooke M. Koelz of Columbia, Mo., Nicholas D. Rutz of Kansas City, Mo., and Matt A. Rutz of San Diego, California.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, Alvin C. Mettler, who died March 25, 1975 and a sister-in-law, Pauline E. (Messerli) Mettler.

Memorials may be made to the Highland Animal Shelter or to a charity of the donor's choice.
