

Marvin O. Wendler

December 9, 1938 - December 2, 2023

Marvin O. Wendler, age 84 of Highland, IL, died Saturday, December 2, 2023, at Belleville Memorial Hospital in Belleville, IL.

He was born on Friday, December 9, 1938, in Collinsville, IL, the son of Otto and Eleanor (nee Kunneman) Wendler.

On Friday, June 6, 2003, he married Lorena D. Wendler, nee O'Dell, at Edwardsville, Illinois, who survives.

He was a member of Edwardsville Moose Lodge #1561, Illinois Archaeological Survey Society, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Trainmen, and Loggerhead Club (Founder), St. Jacob, IL.

Marvin was born in Collinsville, IL. He grew up there and graduated from Collinsville High School in 1956. He was a railroad locomotive engineer for 36 years. He worked for 26 of those years for Manufactures Railway in St. Louis, Mo. He retired from there in 2000. He lived in St. Jacob for many years. He even built his own log cabin on his property. Marvin loved to hunt - deer, elk, squirrel and rabbit. He loved to visit his brother Dave's hunting lodge in Montana, and taking hunting trips to Colorado and Wyoming with his buddies and son, Joel. He loved to hunt for Indian relics, especially arrowheads. Marvin also enjoyed mushroom hunting. He was very well-known for telling jokes. He enjoyed playing the harmonica. Spending time with friends and family was very important to him.

“ Marvin was such a wonderful man. The last time I saw him was in my early 20’s when a few or group would be going to Highland, St Jacob, and the cities picnics. I would run into him and have a beer or two, he always made us laugh, he had so many jokes and he play a tune for us sometimes. Great conversation since my dad taught us everything Marvin enjoyed. He always made me feel safe and he was the angel that made sure we were ok while out partying. Everyone loved the man but God has his room prepared and another angel got his wings. May your family find peace, strength, and comfort as you enjoy all the memories and reading how people loved your Dad. Until we meet again Marv, save me a place to have a beer with you. Love you Marcia Sova
